pitching is not what has been losing games for the Senators. The weak batting list is the drawback. The vital history of yesterday's game was made in the last two innings. Up to the time when most games end it looked like a shut-out for Bultimore, and would have been the first they had scored this year. Clingman's awkward handling of Williams' grounder in the sixth and Genr's fumble of Keister's hit enabled tenth Dunn hauled a horse-hoe out of the bat bag and lugged it to the coaching minute later when Seymour drove a hard one into left. Lee, who had taken Foster's place, crossed the plate, followed by Quian. Unple Sheridan then came to the front with the edict that it was a blocked ball and that Mr. Quinn should return to second, the score not counting.

A roar of disapproval went up. Foster attempted to remonstrate and was benched. Clarke was threatened with the same fate. Quinn ambled back to the second cushion, and there he stayed. It was all over with the Senators after that. Mr. Hart, who covers first for the Orioles, did damage to the extent of a two bagger. "Robby," the rotund giant of the Baltimore aggregation, did likewise, and Hart scored. Robinson was anxious to get home and made a bold break for third. Clarke in an attempt to cut him off threw wild, and Baltimore was two to the good before most people knew what had happened. It was made no worse. McGinnity was retired at first, while Dunn and Donlin met the same fate. The Senators went to bat, but a fast double sent Farreil and Charke to the bench in short order. Dungan laced out a single, but was cut off at second for the third out.

Certain of the 2.00 spectators who welcome? the Senators home insisted that one Sheridan, umpire by the grace of Ban Johns in and recipient of shekels from the strong box of the American League, was to blame for the Oriolean triumph, by reason of divers decisions which caused the fans much pain. The feeling of indignation was so strong that Mr. Sheridan was hissed at the conclusion of the game. The bleacherites, that is, a part of them, surrounded him. No personal violence was offered him other than the joits and short arm swings inflicted upon his feelings by ejaculations such as "robber" and "thlef" and other terms not so mild.

One fan asked another why it was that there were two unpires in the game yes-terday. "Why, you see, John McGraw needs an umpire all to himself," was the answer. And then some one remarked that it was seven weeks since "Muggsy" ad been sent to the bench.

It was all due to Foster, who has been butting so peorly that everyone yelled with surprise when he belted out a two-sacker and enabled the Senators to the score. Attention of the athletically inclined in Army, Navy, and Marine Corps circles is turned toward the big game to be played on Friday between teams representing the headquarters and the navy yard Marine Corps teams. The championship of the Army, Navy, and Marine Corps of the District of Columbia and the States of Virginia and Maryland is involved. Over ,000 tickets have already been sold and ever when the Senators are playing at

There is no purse up for the winner, but inning neither pitcher was hit to any ex-tent. There was a general shaking up in the latting order of both teams. The supposed to be enough. BALL PLAYING IN PARKS.

The Privilege to Be Restricted Here.

after to Young Boys. The juvenile baseball players of Washington have a monopoly. Hereafter small boys will be the only ones allowed to play baseball in the public parks. Col. Theo dore A. Bingham, acting on the letter of an act passed by Congress in 1890 authorizing the setting aside of certain public property for use as "children's playgrounds," yesterday issued an order that none but small boys should be allowed to play baseball in the public parks.

Amateur teams composed of young men who have been in the habit of playing on the Monument Grounds were much put at yesterday when they were informed that hereafter they could not enjoy the national game there. Colonel Bingham says that the action was taken because the small boys complained that they were driven from the grounds by their elders. Unless some other arrangement is made It appears that the "kids" will hereafter enjoy undisputed occupancy of the diamonds on the Monument Grounds and on

This ground, too, will be open hereafter only to small boys.

The issuance of the order at this time was partly on account of the trouble experienced between the police and the marines, two of whom were arrested for playing ball in the street at the reservation in the Southeast section. Colonel Bingham said last night that he had had numerous complaints from people living near the reservation to the effect that the marines who played there had batted balls through their window lights, and that after due consideration of the law he decided to settle the point for good. "The complaints have been so numerous," said he, "that I have been obliged | to take some action. The act which authorizes the Superintendent of Public Buildings and Grounds to set aside certain property as playgrounds stipulates that the ground shall be for the children. No mention is made of a playground for men. The rule was in effect when I took my present office. Consequently in the face of so many complaints both from citizens and from the small boys, for whom the playgrounds were intended, I was obliged to make the order.

"Congress should make some provision for general public playgrounds. I would endorse any plan of the kind. In the meantime we will be obliged to prevent right away for violation of the rule at R. H. PO. A. E. present, realizing that it comes at a seaon of the year when the sport is exemely popular. However, there is nothg to do but to enforce the regulation."

There are three diamonds on the Monnent Grounds and scarce an afternoon asses but that there are not one or two mes in each. Some of the best known nateur teams in the District have been the habit of practicing and playing ere. Among them are the Fearson Athtic Club, Woodward & Lothrop, South-Railway, Government Land Office, usus Office, the Engineers of the War epartment, the District National Guard, of the American Athletic Club.

The order was issued yesterday after-oon. After 4 o'clock there were fully 0 people at the Monument Grounds expecting to play ball or to watch a game which was scheduled between two well known teams. There was much disap-pointment at the announcement that play would not be permitted, but no trouble resulted.

Most of the members of the teams enu-

Most of the members of the teams enumerated above are young men ranging in age from eighteen to twenty-live years. The Monument Grounds afford really the only good diamonds within easy access of the downtown district and the departments. The members of these teams say that if they are 1 of permitted to play on the Government grounds they will not be able to play at all unless they go to a great distance from the heart of the city or hire private grounds. Further than this they state that as a rule they do not play or practice until after 4 o clock in the afternoon, and that the small boy teams play in the morning or early in the the Milwaukee outfielder. Several days ago Manager Manning made arrange-ments with Duffy, of the Brewers, whereby Waldron should come to Washington. The deal has been practically arranged. Manning had not, however, last night heard from Waldron. It is expected that the matter will be definitely decided to-day.

NOTES OF THE DIAMOND.

Manning is after Hayden, released by the Philadelphias.

The Bostons are forcing the pace in the American League race to a pretty fast clip. The Chicago White Stockings won ten straight games, which is going some, but even that gait did not give them much of a lead over Boston, and the lat-ter on Sunday went into first place.

President Johnson, of the American League, is making constant trips to the different cities in his circuit which have no apparent cause. He is at present on a visit to Boston and the other Eastern cities. It appears that there must be either a plan on foot whereby the American League is strengthening its own fences against another senson, or else there is a compromise scheme in process formation between the two warring
